Landfill spat splits board

by GLORIA DAVIS

Landfill proposals usually bring controversy to the target area. The 70 acre addition to the present 80 acre one now in Antioch, owned by Waste Management Inc., is no exception.

Such controversy has already seeped into the Antioch Village Board and includes Mayor Ray Toft.

When Toft appointed a seven-man committee to investigate the present landfill's condition and to also look into Waste Management's proposal that the village annex 60 acres of the 70 acre proposed landfill, Trustee Claudette Skvarce took exception to Toft's appointment of Robert Loutsch to that committee.

Dropping off the committee because of this, Skvarce says that the appointment of Loutsch, manager of the Antioch HOD Landfill, is a conflict of interest.

"He doesn't belong on the committee, not only is he employed by Waste Management, but he doesn't even live here, he lives in Wilmette," she says.

Skvarce also objects to Toft's statement that he thought it was important to have Loutsch on the committee so he could answer any questions the committee might have on the landfill.

"He would still be available to answer questions," she said.

She also adds that, although she didn't know that Al Little, who owns 80 acres abutting the proposed project, was on the committee when she dropped off, she thinks that it is okay for him to be on it, even though he has special vested interests.

"Everyone in town has a vested interest in this. It could mean the life or death of the town in the future," she said vehemently.

Remarking on Toft's reported statement that he thought it important to have people both for and against the proposal on the committee, Skvarce said, "He's hard-pressed to find many people who are for it."

She also negates reports that if the village doesn't accept the landfill, the county will put it there anyway. The trustee said, "Right now the county board doesn't want the headaches involved in controlling a dumpsite."

She adds, "Even then, Antioch will still have the right to go before the county board and show how it will effect, not only Antioch, but the surrounding resort communities."

In rebuttal Toft says, "If she had the best interest of the people of Antioch in mind she would have stayed on the committee when she was appointed to it."

Toft added that he gave a lot of thought into the committee's personnel and had good reason for appointing all those whom he did, feeling each was concerned about the project.

As far as Skvarce's remark that she really didn't think any board members should be on the committee and that there were many other qualified concerned Antioch citizens who could do the job, Toft said, "Who is more involved than the board, they're the ones that will have to make the final decision?"

Skvarce also objected to Trustee Bill Seemann being on the committee because he had voted for the first landfill.

Seemann had no comment on the other trustee's objection but did say that he thought it was important to study the condition of the present landfill to see how Waste Management is handling that.

He also said that he was in the process of looking into, and would continue to study, as much as he could about projects of this kind.

"All the rhetoric in the world will do you no good if you go into meetings with groups like the Environmental Protection Agency without having the facts to back you up," he said.

Board awards bus contracts

Antioch Community High School board members and administration are taking a long hard look at the school in an effort to make the school more energy efficient, according to Business Manager Kenneth Wierscham.

Wierscham and two school board members, Tony Starcevic, chairman of the school's energy management committee, Frank Walsh, Jr., along with Supt. Warren Polley made a physical inspection of the building as per recommendations made by Enercon Ltd., an outside energy consulting firm.

The consultants reviewed the plans of the building, its different additions and physically inspected the different areas of the school. The purpose of the study was to make practical recommendations on methods to save energy at the school.

The school district budgeted $225,000 for energy for the 1981-82 school year.

Although the district was adhering to budget through November, Wierscham said the past two weeks of extreme cold will have a "significant effect" on energy expenditures.

Wierscham hopes to make some recommendations to follow through on certain

Bell Ringers free to all news readers

Hear Ye, Hear Ye.

Beginning with the Feb. 1 issue, The Antioch News will offer to its readers FREE Bell Ringer Want Ads.

The free family Bell Ringer want ads are a great way for Antioch area families to sell boats, motorcycles and bikes, furniture, appliances, autos and pets as well as to advertise give-aways and lost and found items, free of charge.

Business and business-oriented ads do not classify as Bell Ringer ads. All Bell Ringer ads must be printed or typed on a form supplied by the Antioch News which can be found in the paper. No ads or renewals will be accepted over the phone, however ads can be cancelled or corrected by phone.

Bell Ringer want ads will run for free for three weeks in The Antioch News. Renewals may be made by simply filling out a new Bell Ringer form. Deadline is 9 a.m. Monday for that Monday's issue of The Antioch News.

Further details can be found elsewhere in this week's issue of The Antioch News, or by stopping in at The Antioch News office, 952 Main St., Antioch.

Antioch Fire Dept. gives heater warning

Asst. Chief Jim Quedenfeld of the Antioch Fire Dept. Fire Prevention Bureau would like to give the following advice to the people of the Antioch area who have purchased or are about to purchase kerosene heaters for emergency heat in their home.

When purchasing the heater, be sure it has a U.L. label. Make sure it has an automatic shut-off in case it is jarred or tipped over, and make sure it has a grill that will prevent contact with the burner area.

Once you have a heater, use it correctly. Always fill the heater out-of-doors, using only high grade, water clear, kerosene. Cheap grades of kerosene contain impurities that can hurt the heater's performance and could cause dizziness or nausea. NEVER use gasoline.

Never store the kerosene in the house, and never fill the heater all the way to the top because if the fuel is cold it will expand as it warms up and could leak out of the heater.

Always keep the heater a safe distance from all combustible surfaces. Three feet is a good working distance. ALWAYS provide proper ventilation. Remember, these heaters do not vent their exhaust products out through a chimney. They can build up in a tightly closed room, and at the same time, the oxygen in the room is being used up.

The Consumer Product Safety Commission recommends at least one square inch of vent area to the outdoors for every 1,000 BTUs of heat your heater can produce per hour. Some makers of the heaters suggest that you open a window or door to air out the room every few hours. This ventilation of the heater is very important.

An item of fire safety concern to the Antioch Fire Dept. is the use and care of wood-burning stoves. A list of safety items that the fire department hopes that the citizens will take notice of are: install stoves away from combustible material; install the chimney pipe in the proper manner so that it does not come in contact with any combustible material and it also should have an air space between the pipe and the combustible material; the pipes should be taken apart and cleaned so that there is not a build up of pitch from the burning of wood.

Also, if the woodburning stove is hooked up to a chimney be sure to clean the chimney out when the pitch starts to build up so you can avoid a chimney fire.

Quedenfeld hopes that the above suggestions in the purchase and use of portable kerosene heaters and woodburning stoves will help prevent any accidents from occurring. If anyone should want more information on the proper use and safety of the kerosene heaters and woodburning stoves they should contact the Antioch Fire Dept. Fire Prevention Bureau.

Park Dept. offers free dancersize, aerobics

The Antioch Park and Recreation Dept. will be starting a new dancersize and aerobic dance class and will be introducing a new instructor, Kathy Morrissey.

The classes are scheduled for Tuesday and Friday mornings from 10 to 11 a.m. and Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 5:30 to 6:30 p.m.

To introduce residents to this new program, the parks department is offering the first class free. The fee for eight weeks of classes two days a week will be $25.

Residents should take advantage of the free class to see if they enjoy it.

Classes will start Feb. 2. Registration is open now. Interested parties can call the parks office to reserve a spot at (312) 395-2160.

Ruth Warren attends Mary Kay convention

Ruth Warren of Antioch, a professional beauty consultant with Dallas-based Mary Kay Cosmetics, Inc., has just returned from the company's renowned annual Seminar held in the Dallas Convention Center.

Seminar is a professionally-produced annual convention where consultants and directors gather for three days of workshops, speeches and awards. Sessions on product knowledge, sales techniques, motivation and business management highlighted the agenda.

This $2.5 million Seminar featured 20 major shows complete with singers and dancers, full orchestration and elaborate film shows. Glen Campbell was the celebrity at this laser-light event appropriately named "Light Up Your Life."

A New York-style fashion show complete with designs created especially for Mary Kay Cosmetics informed the audience about spring fashions and how the new Mary Kay makeup colors compliment these fashions.

Mary Kay Ash, founder and chairman of the board, gave her special thank you to the top consultants and directors on awards night. Winners were bestowed with minks, diamonds, vacations, prizes and, of course, the famous pink Cadillacs and Buicks. Each winner had her/his moment in the spotlight and a chance to enjoy a special congratulations for her/his success.

Ruth and Michael Warren enjoy living in Antioch with their four children, Dan, Ian, Ruthie and David. Ruth was pleased to be joined in Dallas by one of her recruits, her mother-in-law, Helen Warren, a professional beauty consultant with Mary Kay Cosmetics in Royal Palm Beach, Fla.

Since its founding in September, 1963, Mary Kay Cosmetics has evolved from a small regional cosmetics firm to a fully integrated manufacturer and international distributor of skin and hair care products, cosmetics, toiletries and fragrances.

The company's net sales were $91.4 million in 1979 and $166.7 million in 1980. Net sales during the first nine months of 1981 were $174.3 million, 48 percent over the comparable period last year.

proposals made in the energy study at the school board's Jan. 21 meeting.

Some of the major changes being seriously considered include:

Replacement of poor quality windows in the shop area with a solid insulated wall.

Covering of other drafty windows with thermax or another insulating substance by the school's maintenance department. Windows which will be covered are high windows not used for looking outdoors.

Purchase of low-powered, slow-moving fans to be put in the gymnasium ceiling. The fans would push the hot air from the ceiling and keep it circulating at floor level.

Construction of a permanent cover for univents, self contained heating and fan operations, which were built into the wall in various areas throughout the school in 1970. Wierscham wants a cover to be designed which would allow air to come in during moderate temperature, but to be blocked off during the winter. He said the cold air would come through the univents at present if the maintenance department did not cover the outside of the vents with plywood which is supported by props outside of the school. Wierscham hopes the designed covers will also be more eye-pleasing.

Others appointed to the committee include Marilyn Shineflug, concerned citizen; Charles Maplethorp, Antioch superintendent of public works; Hank Glenn, local well driller and Trustee Rod White, appointed in Skvarce's place.

NEED TREES?

The Village of Antioch has received an offer from a local nursery to purchase certain types of trees at a cost of $11.50 each. Antioch Village Board members will consider purchase of the trees if citizens feel there is a need.

READY TO GO

The Antioch Village Board unanimously approved payment of $2,228 to McClure Engineering for cost of the engineering study of the Oakwood Knoll Subdivision. Bids, which are scheduled to be opened February 15, can now be advertised for the proposed storm sewer rehabilitation project.

AARP dues payable at Jan. 26 meeting

by BERNICE BERNAU

Due to severe cold weather, Antioch Chapter 387 of the American Assn. of Retired Persons (AARP) canceled its Jan. 12 meeting.

The next general meeting will be held at the Antioch Area Senior Center, 817 Holbek Dr., Antioch, on Tuesday, Jan. 26. Sandwiches, cake and coffee will be served at noon.

Members are reminded that dues of $2 a year are payable at this time. In lieu of bringing a cake or sandwiches during the year, the members are being asked to donate $3 each when paying their dues.

It will still be necessary to pay 35 cents for the refreshments served at the meeting, unless they are asked to pay for a catered meal.

Tickets will be sold for a catered chicken dinner to be served at the Feb. 23 meeting, which will be a Valentine party.

Games will be played at the Jan. 26 social meeting.

Members are asked to listen to radio station WKRS

(1200) on meeting days to hear if the meeting has been canceled.

THE IMPACT-RESISTANT LENS

Every eyeglass and sunglass approved by the Food and Drug Administration must be impact-resistant. It must be able to withstand the impact of a 5/8" steel ball dropped from a height of 50 inches.

But if you're wearing impact-resistant eyeglasses or sunglasses, that doesn't mean they're shatter-proof or break-proof. You may have a greater protection now than you had before the FDA regulation went into effect. But you still have to protect your eyes and your glasses from accidents.

A lot depends on the care you give your glasses. Dropping them can sometimes loosen the lens. And if you have scratched your glasses, you have weakened them. They will be easier to break or shatter.

It's important to have your glasses checked regularly. Your optometrist will make sure they are in good condition. If needed, he can recommend quality lenses that meet the highest standards of impact-resistance. And he can check your eyes to make sure your glasses are giving you the best possible vision.

Van Patten to represent Illinois 4-H at forum

Carolyn Van Patten, mortgage officer at The First National Bank of Antioch, has been selected to represent Illinois at the Economics, Jobs & Careers Forum. This forum will be held at the National 4-H Center, Washington, D.C., Jan. 25 to the 30.

The workshop is designed to better enable 4-H leaders and council representatives to train, strengthen and expand the 4-H education programs. This will give the 4-H youth more of an opportunity for employment, economics, jobs and careers.

Van Patten has been a 4-H leader for 11 years serving on the Lake County Executive Council, vice-chairman of the 4-H Youth Council and a Lake County Cooperative Extension Foundation board member.

She and her husband Roger have two sons, Eric, 13 and Aaron, 9. Both boys are active members in 4-H.

Museum panel scheduled

At the Feb. 9 meeting to discuss and inform local residents about plans for renovating the old Antioch Grade School on Main St. into an area historical museum, among those on the discussion panel will be Robert O. Dunn, who was a member of the 1976 Libertyville Bicentennial Commission; has served six years as president and six years as director as well as program chairman of the Libertyville-Mundelein Historical Society; is a past director and present member of the Illinois State Historical Society; current director and treasurer of the David Adler Cultural Center and senior vice president and cashier of the First National Bank of Libertyville.

Marie Janik, immediate past president of the Libertyville-Mundelein Historical Society, now archivist and member of the board of directors, will also be on the panel.

Also present to inform local residents on historical museum experiences, will be that historical society's program chairman, Jean Dresser.

Each of these people will give a short presentation about the development and operation of their society.

The Time Machine

FIFTY YEARS AGO: JANUARY 21, 1932

Old Man Winter's icy fingers reached out and encircled Antioch, Thursday and Friday morning, causing cold rain and sleet which froze on windshields and sidewalks and streets, leaving the city a glazed sheet of ice. Hundreds of persons were inconvenienced or delayed in their driving, but not one accident was reported.

Charles E. Cobb paid for his 46th subscription to the Antioch News.

The organized militant taxpayers of Lake County have started and intensive investigation and are obtaining much data in order to find out what taxes the public utilities pay.

The Lake County taxpayers are also wondering why the county clerk does not get the minutes of the board of supervisors' meeting published on time as required by law.

Mrs. James Stearns and Miss Esther Stearns hosted a social meeting of the Guild of St. Ignatius Church.

Miss Verlo Porter, Tuscola, Ill. was the house guest of Supt. and Mrs. William Petty.

William H. Malone, taxpayers' candidate for governor of Illinois claims that Illinois pays one-tenth of the nation's taxes.

THIRY YEARS AGO: JANUARY 24, 1952

The Rev. Harvey Bruce Strange became new pastor of St. Ignatius Church.

Charles Cermak Jr., Antioch real estate broker, entered the race for county recorder.

The Antioch Fire Dept. enjoyed a blue-gill fish fry and members of the village board, who are not already firmen, were guests.

Dr. William H. Kenner sold 182 acres of property fronting North Ave., in Cross Lake, to the Crown Real Estate Co., Chicago, for a 700 lot subdivision.

At the same time, Kenner sold 72 acres to Father Felix for the Benedictine Monastery.

Lorraine Kennedy co-chaired a card party for the Ladies of St. Vincent's Orphanage Committee of St. Peters Church.

Stephen Nelson, 7, fell on the ice at Antioch Grade School and was taken to Victory Memorial Hospital with a serious brain concussion. He is now home convalescing.

Loren Sexauer was installed as president of the Antioch Lions Club at Smarts Country House.

TEN YEARS AGO: JANUARY 26 1972

The Antioch High School Board discussed a possible new tax referendum for the district's ailing educational fund. Supt. Albert Dittman said the tax referendum was not passed last year because of lack of unified action by the school board.

Bids were being prepared for the construction of permanent facilities for the College of Lake County.

The Antioch Womans Club welcomed Jan Burdick as a new member.

Kathy Kelly and Steve Strang made the dean's list at Southern Illinois University, Carbondale.

Mrs. Effie Nelson celebrated her 90th birthday at the Joseph Horton home.

The Antioch AARP Chapter held its first meeting in the community room of the Antioch Savings and Loan.

Avery A. Vos continued on the advisory board two of the Lake-McHenry Dist. of Associated Milk Producers.

Roger Andrews, Antioch varsity basketball coach, claimed that his greatest task was the decision of who makes the team and who gets cut.

Letter To The Editor

OBJECTS TO ARTICLE

Editor:

This is in response to an article that was published on behalf of something that occurred while I was on duty when I was stationed in Damascus, Syria.

My name is Cpl. Ricardo Ciccotosto. The reason for this letter is in response to the article that appeared on page four, column one, of the paper that was published on November, 1981.

To quote your article, "I hear one of our former Antiochans, now serving Uncle Sam overseas, is somewhat of a hero."

Corp. Ricardo Ciccotosto, stationed in Damascus, Syria, on embassy duty, has been commended by the U.S. Ambassador there for performing acts above and beyond the call of duty, using quick action and a professional manner in the exercise of sound judgment in preventing a serious incident from occurring because of the compromise of highly classified material."

First off, this article is very enlightening on my behalf, for it shows that people do take interest in the servicemen overseas. But I'd like to clear up a few undeserved honors and mistakes made by your newspaper.

One, this performance of my job and duties that I do, was not above and beyond the call of duty; it was in all respects just part of the job that I was and am expected to fulfill!

Two, this letter of commendation that I received from the Ambassador could have very easily have gone to another Marine, I just happened to be the particular individual that was on duty when this incident occurred!

Three, the abbreviation that was used in your article for the rank that I wear, was printed as CORP., it (the proper abbreviation) as designated by the United States Marine Corps is as follows: Cpl.

Four, I have already received a counseling on what this article had said, and if this story was any more out of context than it was, it could have very easily have jeopardized my remaining years that I have left to serve in U.S. Marine Corps.

I am glad to say that it did not. — So in all due respect I took it upon myself to set this story straight for this could have reflected badly on the pride and integrity of which the Marines have taken so long to build and uphold, which is why many of the Marines cherish that hard earned title which took us so long to acquire!

I would greatly appreciate it, if your newspaper would print this letter in order to undo the damage that it has caused because of the use of some misquoted and poorly chosen words!

Ricardo Ciccotosto
CPL, USMC

The article that ran in Annie Mae's column was a direct quote from a release sent to the newspaper by the Dept. of the Navy, Fleet-Hometown News Center, Norfolk, Va.

Thinking it might possibly make a good story, we called the United States Marine Corps in Washington, but were told we would have to have Ciccotosto's serial numbers before they would be able to give us anymore information on the incident. Since we did not, we ran what we thought was a small article accrediting a local serviceman.

BIG BUSINESS

Editor:

The Women's Auxiliary of Troop 83 would like to thank everyone for their fine efforts in making their first Christmas raffle a great success!

We would especially like to thank the Lindenhurst Women's Club which so kindly donated the raffle tickets for this fund raiser.

Special thanks are also in order to the ladies of our own Auxiliary who donated the hand-made raffled items.

The raffle was held on Dec. 14 along with the Scouts Court of Honor and the Christmas party.

The winners of the raffle were Ray Good who won the gingerbread house made by Sue Redmond; Mike Danaj won the ceramic Christmas tree made by Marge Fernhout and M. Holbo won the ceramic Santa Claus and dishes made by Erica Danaj. Thank you again, one and all.

Newcomer finds Antioch's retailers most helpful

Editor:

I am fairly new in the community, as my husband and I moved to Antioch last October. We have done extensive remodeling and decorating in our house, and that is why I am writing this letter on why I like to shop in Antioch.

We found the stores and the salespeople in Antioch very helpful in fulfilling our many needs. Erickson's Sewing Center is the most complete sewing center I have ever seen.

Mrs. Erickson helped me select my material for the 18 windows in my living-dining area. She cut the panels in preparation for my sewing, which was a big help.

They have classes for making your own garments, quilts, and crafts. I really enjoy shopping there.

Also True Value Hardware had supplied us with many gallons of paint, and they have been helpful in mixing the right colors.

I have found that the local stores have a nice selection. When shopping for Christmas I found many things right here in Antioch at the Globe, The Four Squire's and B.J.'s.

I like the specialty shops, and I like to browse in places like The Old Attic.

When explaining to friends that we were moving to a town of 4400, I always added, "but you should see the nice business district!"

Yes, I thoroughly enjoy shopping in Antioch.

Mrs. Glen Strang
Antioch

Along the way with ANNIE MAE

Old Annie Mae has had a lot of trouble navigating many of the sidewalks in town, especially in the downtown shopping area.

I imagine a lot of people have had the same trouble since the arctic freeze and snow hit Antioch.

With the village maintenance crews having as much as they can handle trying to keep the local roads clear, it would seem to me that residents should be responsible for clearing sidewalks in front of their homes and more important, because of the larger volume of walking traffic, businesses should clear-off the sidewalks in front of their establishments.

Anyone who has tried to trudge the local shopping area, especially on Main and Lake Sts. will tell you that this has not been done by many merchants.

They'll tell you this, that is if they have survived what could be a treacherous walk, especially for senior citizens.

Congrats to Lori Esser who has just received a recognition award for her participation in the pom-pom squad at Illinois Benedictine College, Lisle, Ill.

Some more of Antioch's collegiate scholars that deserve accolades are Debbie Lynn Boehm and Tami Suzanne Dyson, who were both on the fall dean's list at Illinois State University, Normal, Ill. and Robert Hunley who had the same honors at Jacksonville University, Fla.

In reminding us of the St. Peters Blood drive on Jan. 30, Ricky Apostol reports that one out of every two people will need blood type O positive; one out of 10 will need O negative; one in four will need A positive; one in 25 will need A negative; one in nine will need B positive; one in 62 will need B negative; one in 40 will need AB positive and one in 350 will need AB negative.

Everyone who is able, should make it a point to donate blood. You can never tell, the next one to need a blood transfusion might be you or one of your loved ones.

I see where the local KOPPS (Keep Pounds Off Sensibly) Club is having a meeting at 7 p.m., Feb. 3, at the Antioch Scout House. They will be holding an exciting auction in order to raise funds to send KOPPS grads to the area recognition day.

Rumour has it that the Laddie Koreceks were lucky enough to take in the Super Bowl last weekend while visiting friends in Michigan.

The Salvation Army has asked us to thank the local citizens for their donations given to the organization over the holidays.

They announced that they were especially grateful to Angie Maras, Antioch, and members of Hawthorn Center Assn. for the beautiful Neediest Children Christmas Gift Box.

"A newspaper dedicated to people marching to their own drummers."

Bulldogs chomp Antioch, in 74-56 trounce

The Grant Bulldogs chewed up the Antioch Sequoit varsity basketball team on Friday, Jan. 22, on Grant's home court, soundly trouncing them, 74-56.

Steve Sheedlo was the only Sequoit to put double figures on the scoreboard, marking down 26 points.

Coach Roger Andrews commended Sheedlo on "a superb game, both offensively and defensively."

Andrews additional comment was part explanation for the Sequoit's defeat. "Sheedlo didn't get much help from his teammates and that's what hurt us," he said.

At the end of the first quarter, Grant was ahead, 12-10, and the Bulldogs continued to pull away from Antioch as the game progressed, till they lead, 49-34, by the third quarter's finish.

A lot of points were exchanged in the fourth quarter, but Antioch was 18 points behind when the final buzzer sounded.

"Our front line was flat during the last couple of games," said Andrews.

"They just haven't gotten with it," he added, saying that was one of the strong points to be worked on.

The re-scheduled game against Woodstock was not played on Saturday and it has not been rescheduled to date.

Antioch will play Stevenson at Antioch in the finish of the first round of conference play, at 8 p.m., on Friday, Jan. 29.

High games bowled included a 255 by Ron Hartman; Bill Carney, 254; Richard Grenell, 230; Ted Michalski, 225; Bruce Roseman, 224; and Roy Witek, 221.

Bowlers who advance to the affiliate round on March 27 or 28, 1982 will be notified by mail as to the time they will bowl. Grand Bowl in Waukegan, will host the affiliate round.

Emmons Raiders have 8-2 record

The Emmons Raiders downed the Newport Braves, 52-51, to close the first half of their conference schedule with an unblemished 5-0 record.

The Raiders are in pursuit of their 12th consecutive conference championship. The Emmons quintet has also downed Grass Lake, 53-38; Millburn, 40-31; Lotus, 74-11; and Spring Grove, 62-44.

When Emmons played Newport the Raiders outscored their opponents, 20-6, during the first period and then hung on to the narrowest margin of victory. Stan Kuligowski led the way for Emmons with 17 points. Bob Hawks hit for 10 points in a balanced attack that saw Scott Ranney contribute nine and Matt Weber and Chris Jacobs eight each. Leading the way for Newport was Seans with 24 followed by Carlson with 22.

In the Emmons, Grass Lake game, Emmons knocked off the Braves of Grass Lake, 53-38. Kuligowski led the Raiders attack with 22 points and Hawks chipped in with 10. Scott Hensel and Dave Perryman shared honors with 17 points each.

The Emmons vs. Millburn game had the Millburn Mustangs, led by 6'2" center Dave Grindley visiting, the Raider gym. The job for the Raider defense was to stop the big man in the middle.

Emmons, in a two-two, with a chaser on Grindley, did just that. Grindley was held to nine, while Jay Schottino led Millburn with 14.

The Emmons squad was led once again by their super guard Kuligowski who picked up 22 game high points. Matt Weber, who picked up nine points and nine rebounds followed Kuligowski's point total and 12 boards. Chris Jacobs played a tremendous defensive game while adding seven rebounds.

Emmons played Lotus in a game that proved no contest since the Raiders destroyed Lotus, 75-11. Kuligowski again led the way with 25 points. Weber chipped in 16 and Hawks in double figures with 10 aided the Raider attack.

When Emmons went up against Spring Grove, in their conference opener, the Raiders rolled over Spring Grove, 62-44. Matt Weber played a strong game bagging 13 points and leading the Raiders in rebounds with 11. Ranney added 12 points while once again Kuligowski led the attack with 22 points.

The Raiders, in non-conference games, have a 3-2 record. Emmons downed Big Hollow, 47-37 and 51-34 and Gavin, 42-16. The Raiders fell to defeat at the hands of Oak Crest, 50-39, and Westfield, 56-35. The Emmons squads' total record is 8-2.

Jaycettes bowl, benefit autistic

Matthew Zasadil is one of many Lake County autistic children who are taught in special classes through the Special Education District of Lake County (SEDOL). These children can overcome their learning difficulties when given the special help and instruction they need.

Citizens can help these children by participating in the upcoming Third Annual Bowling for Autistic Children sponsored by the Antioch Jaycettes.

It will be on Sunday, Feb. 7, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. at the Antioch Bowl.

Anyone who wishes to bowl three games for autistic children should obtain sponsor sheets as soon as possible and begin signing up sponsors.

These forms are available at the Antioch Bowl, the State Bank of Antioch, First National Bank of Antioch, Antioch Savings and Loan, or by calling the project chairman.

There will be many prizes for bowlers, who can win while helping these autistic children to win a better education.

For more information contact Mary Schaub, project chairman, at (312)395-8796.

Upper Grade to host cage tourney

Antioch Upper Grade School will host its annual eighth grade basketball tournament on Jan. 28, 29, and 30.

Lake Villa vs. Lake Zurich

Antioch vs. St. Peters

The action will resume Thursday night at 7:15 p.m. with Salem vs. Oakcrest and Round Lake vs. Emmons.

Winners of the first round will play Friday, Jan. 29, at 4 p.m. Play offs for third and fourth place will be Saturday, Jan. 30 at 7 p.m. with the championship game scheduled for 8:15 p.m.

Admission is 75 cents for students eighth grade and under and $1.50 for adults.

PM&L plans play 'Life' to open Feb. 13

These days, the sign at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main Street in Antioch, reads, "Show in February." That show is Brian Clark's gripping and timely play, "Whose Life Is It Anyway?"

The opening presentation is set for Saturday night, Feb. 13, with following performances to take place Friday and Saturday nights, Feb. 19, 20, 26, and 27.

There will also be a matinee Sunday Afternoon, Feb. 21. The curtain will rise at 8:30 p.m. for the evening shows and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.

"Whose Life Is It Anyway?" raises the tantalizing and currently controversial question of the propriety of "pulling the plug" on a severely and incurably incapacitated hospital patient.

In the play, Ken Harrison, portrayed by Phillip Jaeger of Zion, is a quadriplegic, paralyzed from the neck down, who fights for his right to die by deliberate choice rather than to be kept "alive" indefinitely by hospital technology.

The question on which the story centers has drawn increasing wide spread attention in our time.

This probably accounts in part for the popularity "Whose Life" has enjoyed in earlier stage productions, one starring Mary Tyler Moore, and for the current movie featuring Richard Dreyfuss.

"Whose Life" can be regarded, in some ways, as a comedy, despite the desperately life-and-death nature of its story.

This is largely because of the clever wit and remarkable insight of the patient, caught almost helplessly in a maze of hospital bureaucracy and intrigue, romantic escapades, and pompous legal tangles.

Moose have first confab

The Women of the Moose first meeting of January credited Helen Gutowski, a re-enrollment sponsored by Louise Gutowski, to the child care committee chapter night.

Chairman Veronica Gahlbech and six members of her committee, hosted the entertainment and were in charge of refreshments for the special night.

The committee announced their project for the year — a game party to be held Saturday, March 27, 7:30 p.m. at the Moose home.

Senior Regent Terry Smallwood acknowledged Library Chairman Mavis Dingsdale, who will be in charge of the committee's prize games on Saturday, March 6 at the Moose home at 7:30 p.m.

A reminder by the senior regent of the open-enrollment of the Loyal Order of Moose celebrating the burning of the mortgage was held on Jan. 23.

The next enrollment of the Women of the Moose will be held Feb. 4 at 8 p.m. with hospital committee in charge of the evening.

Women hear Pedersen

A wonderful Afternoon of Songs sung by Lloyd Pedersen was enjoyed by the members and friends of the Antioch Woman's Club on Jan. 18 at Avanti's Restaurant, near Antioch.

Pedersen is a well-known vocalist from Antioch. He sang songs from the 20's and 30's as well as modern songs and a song that he has written. He was a vocalist with Wayne King's orchestra for several years. He came from California, where he is in a play at the present time, to do the program. He was accompanied by Jeff Smith at the organ.

The club welcomed a new member Joan Casey into the club. The hostesses for the day were Doris Veith, Mary Hallett, Irene Clemens, Clara DuPere, Joan Larson, Gerri Olson, Irene Lang, Alice Hinkle, Audrey Cigrand, Jane Kelban, and Elaine Olson.

The next meeting will be on Feb. 1, in the community room of the State Bank of Antioch. The program will be "Something Fishy" by David Waud of Underwater Productions. Those that saw his last program know what a treat is in store for them.

GOP screens candidates

The Antioch Republican Club sponsored a screening of the following District 4 County Board candidates at the Tower Room on Jan. 19.

Lake Villa Township, Norm Geary, Avon Township were the candidates who were screened by Antioch Township Republican Club President and Chairman Bill Oplawski, Avon Township, Glen Moore, Lake Villa Georgeson, Jack Kiesgan, Grant Township, Chuck Township, and 44 precinct committeemen.

Bank promotes Olsen

Peter Cleven, president of The First National Bank of Antioch, announced the promotion of Jean D. Olsen to the position of assistant cashier. Olsen joined The First National Bank in September, 1979, in the new accounts department and subsequently was promoted to the position of supervisor of bookkeeping.

Her previous bank experience includes eight years with Continental Illinois National Bank, Chicago.

Jean and her husband Tom, who is employed by AT&T, moved to the Antioch area in 1979. They are members of Saint Stephen Lutheran Church where they serve on the communications committee.

AT 26° BELOW, THE ONLY THING YOU COULD DO WAS KEEP MOVING.

January 10th's record cold came awfully close to crippling us here in northern Illinois.

Most of us stayed in, turned up the heat, turned on the TV, the hi-fi, the electric blanket, anything and everything that'd make life more comfortable.

Our people couldn't stay inside. Commonwealth Edison linemen, nearly 400 strong, fought the bitter cold, repairing broken power lines. A thousand more came out to work on other weather-related problems.

The power flowed.

In spite of the frozen fuel oil lines at our generators. In spite of frozen coal piles. In spite of the frozen coal-handling equipment that kept us from getting fuel to our boilers.

What picked up the slack, what saved the day, was our backup power and our strong base of nuclear stations. Most of all, our nuclear stations. They continued uninterrupted, unruffled by the cold or the wind.

Thanks to nuclear power and the dedication of our employees, over 98% of our customers in northern Illinois went untouched. Of those customers who did experience any outage, most had service back within minutes to a few hours.

It's a record we're proud of. A record of reliable service all of the employees of Commonwealth Edison intend to maintain, whatever comes up.

But weatherproof energy requires continual maintenance. And finishing the new nuclear facilities now under construction.

That'll keep us moving. So you can keep getting the kind of service you did on the coldest day in history.

by Robert T. Sven B.S.D.D.S.

What is Periodontal Disease?

After the age of 35, most teeth are lost because of periodontal disease, not decay. Periodontal disease (once called pyorrhea) starts in the gum and then affects the bone surrounding the teeth. Gradually the bone is destroyed, and the teeth loosen, begin to drift, and eventually are lost.

The disease is caused by bacteria and is painless most of the time. Usually, destroyed bone can't be re-grown, but further destruction can often be prevented. Therefore, the sooner the disease is treated, the better the outcome.

Treatment can involve gum surgery. The loosened teeth may need to be splinted together for strength. In any case, treatment is aimed at removing the bacterial plaque that causes periodontal disease. Cooperation from the patient — in the form of scrupulous oral hygiene — is necessary if it is to succeed.

Dr. Sven will be happy to answer individual questions about dental problems. Address personal inquiries to his office.
